WALK FOR BEER.
PRICES OF 1832
OUT GOES OUR GOLD.
COULD IT, MIGHT IT BE?

—By Arthur Brisbane—

(Copyright 1932 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

HERE and there in New York you see in big letters "Walk With Walker, for Beer."

The idea of the parade is "beer for revenue."

Not merely beer to drink, but beer to raise money by taxation for the government.

WASHINGTON, new newspaper correspondents, in a Cosmopolitan magazine article quoted by Cyrus H. K. Curtis' New York Post, are happy about beer prospects. "Good beer will be selling legally in the United States within two years regardless of the Anti-Saloon league," according to the correspondents.

Would they bet on it? Probably not.

AT WELLINGTON, in New Zealand, rioters out of work threw stones at the House of Parliament; 150 windows were broken; some stores were robbed.

The amazing news here is that in some places food prices have gone back to the levels of 1832.

In Texas you may buy eggs for 7 cents a dozen. Ten and two-tenths cents is the average egg price over the country. You buy butter for 17 cents in Tennessee, chickens for 9 cents a pound in North Dakota; the country's average is 12.6 cents. Lamb costs 4.2 cents a pound in Texas and Montana. In Montana mules cost $34, horses $31.

IN THE past week, $37,000—100 American gold has gone to Europe. Today the steamship Europa will carry away, at least $11,000,000 gold, nearly all going to France, a little to Holland.

Since gold is fetish, and the lack of it a calamity, why not keep the gold that is here? We did it in the war, with an embargo.

THAT need not mean "going off the gold basis." We can pay in gold, inside the United States, and forbid gold exports. The President might announce to the other powers:

"We're going to keep all the gold we've got, some four billions, and we propose to gather at least twice as much more, until we own 80 per cent of the world's total gold supply. If you don't think we can do it, watch us."

"Our idea is to stop foolish shooting at the dollar, and foolish talk about gold. You can't say we're off the gold basis, if we are sitting on 80 per cent of all the gold on earth."

COULD it be, might it be, just barely possible that, in spite of denials by our "best minds," there are useful possibilities in certain kinds of public ownership?

John H. Perry, who owns news—

YOUTH'S DEATH IS CLIMAX TO OHIO SLAYING

Murder Confession Made By Husband of Mrs. Herbert Meeker

(By Associated Press)
WOOSTER, O., May 11.—The suicide of a 19-year-old youth shortly after he was implicated in a relative's confession of murder, provided a startling climax early today to an investigation of the slaying of the relative's wife.

The accused youth, Harold Young, fired a shotgun charge into his head just as officers arrived at his home, near here, to arrest him. His death came less than an hour after Herbert Meeker, a Wayne county farmer, named Young as the actual slayer of Meeker's wife.

Implicate Himself
Sheriff John Stevens of Holmes county said Meeker also implicated himself.

The nude body of Meeker's young wife, Gertrude, was found Monday morning lying in a creek near Millsburg. She had been killed by blows on the head.

About a mile away, officers found the husband's automobile with blood on the running board, and wrecked against a tree. Search of the Meeker home later uncovered a blood-stained shirt.

With the evidence in hand, Holmes county officers subjected

State Ballot Trend Appears to be Toward Wet Column

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, May 11.—Ohio swung definitely into the anti-prohibition column yesterday when it repudiated virtually all candidates for major office which had been stamped with the approval of the Anti-Saloon league.

Indicating its wet trend two years ago, the Buckeye State, home of the dry organization, then elected Robert J. Bulkley, liberal, over Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch, Republican, prohibition advocate.

Nominate Bettman

Yesterday, the voters emphasized their desire for repeal of the 18th amendment by nominating Atty. Gen. Gilbert Bettman, repeal advocate, over Louis J. Taber, National Grange master and dry champion, by a majority that may exceed 50,000.

At the same time, the voters apparently have nominated David S. Ingalls, youthful assistant secretary of the navy for aeronautics, an outspoken liberal, by a safe plurality. Ingalls had consistently maintained a lead of approximately 25,000 over Clarence J. Brown, a dry, who had assumed early in the counting of votes with less than two-thirds of the state to report.

Ingalls, assistant secretary of the navy for aeronautics, and Bettman, the Ohio attorney general, campaigned on platforms for liquor law repeal. Their Republican opponents were outspoken dries. Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown, a dry, was the only candidate with a chance to overcome Ingalls' lead.

Trail Ingalls and Brown

Republican candidates trailing Ingalls and Brown for the gubernatorial nomination were former Gov. Myers V. Cooper and James C. Beatty, East Liverpool salesman. Chief rival of Bettman in the Republican senatorial contest was Louis J. Taber, national master of the Grange, with Mayor Jacob S. Coxey of Massillon, Charles A. Bracher, Dayton city commissioner, and Mrs. E. C. T. Miller of Cleveland, further back in the van. In the contests for the two congressional-at-large nominations, the dries

ADD STRENGTH, LEAGUE'S PLAN

Salem Unit May Affiliate With Other Organizations

Preliminary arrangements looking toward affiliation with county and other organizations to increase the effectiveness of their program were discussed by members of the Salem Tax Payers league at their meeting last night in the Memorial building.

It was pointed out by members of the unit that the union of various bodies interested in the diminution of high tax costs would eventually prove far more effective than operation as single organizations.

William Johnson of East Palestine, who has compiled figures on county tax expenditures, is to be invited to attend the next meeting of the Salem league. Later, the league expects to have as its guest Harry Engle of Youngstown, although no date was set for his appearance.

Troy Cope called attention of the league to national expenditures for the medium of congress and urged that the members voice their opinions on congressional legislation by wire or letter to congressmen in order that the latter may be apprised of the sentiment of the constituency on the important problem of spending tax payers' money.

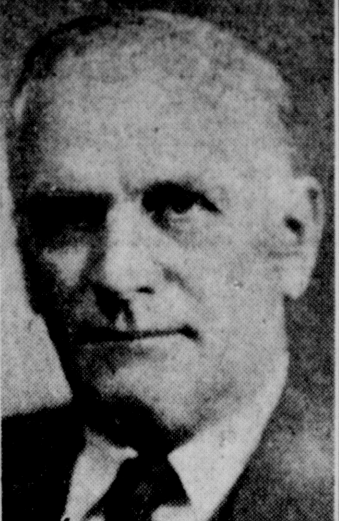

A motion was passed, in accord with the suggestion, to forward a resolution to congressmen calling for the exercise of economy in government expenditures.

E. F. Stratton presided at last night's meeting.

JAPAN ORDERS ITS SOLDIERS FROM SHANGHAI

Unexpected Move Brings Sudden End to World Peace Threat

(By Associated Press)
TOKYO, May 11.—The Japanese government announced today it had decided to withdraw all the rest of its troops from Shanghai, ending with an unexpected suddenness a situation which for four months has threatened the peace of the world.

The announcement was made by a government spokesman at Midday. He said the cabinet made the decision at a meeting yesterday.

Hirohito Approves

The matter was laid before Emperor Hirohito this afternoon and approved by him, after which the general staff telegraphed orders to General Shirakawa, Japanese army commander at Shanghai, to hold all army forces there in readiness to return to Japan. The spokesman said the movement was expected to be completed within a month.

From then on, the spokesman said, Japan expected the United States and other powers interested in Shanghai to see to it that the terms of the recently signed truce agreement were observed by China. The troops, once returned, would

VARIED EVENTS ARRANGED FOR HOSPITAL DAY

Tea, 'Kiddies' Party, Pageant On Program Here Thursday

Salem City hospital today announced its program for the observance of National Hospital day, Thursday, which will include a tea, open to the public, at the hospital; a "kiddies" party at the Hannah E. Mullins Nurses home, and an address and pageant at the Salem High school auditorium at 8 tomorrow night.

Invite Public

The tea is scheduled for 2 until 4 p. m., and during these hours the public will be welcome to visit the institution. Mrs. William Silver is chairman of the general committee and other women on the hospital board will assist her at the tea.

The "kiddies" party at the same hour is for children born in the hospital during the last five years. Mrs. R. T. Holzbach, Mrs. Donald Montgomery and Mrs. L. W. King will direct this event.

B. F. Stanton, superintendent of the Alliance City schools, formerly of Salem, will give the address at the auditorium. The pageant, "History of Nursing" to be presented by student nurses of the hospital, will be in charge of Miss Lillian Schroeder.

Music On Program

Other numbers on the program will be: Selection by a brass quartet composed of Clair King, Marion McArthur, William Holloway and Dale Leipper; selection by a quartet, composed of Mrs. A. B. Hobson, Mrs. Forest Coy, Mrs. Charles Cornwall and Mrs. Calvin Leasure; vocal solo, Mrs. Richard Fitzpatrick, of Columbiana; vocal solo, Rev. R. D. Walter.

Mrs. Hobson is chairman of the music committee.

Since 1921, the 12th of May has been set apart each year as National Hospital day, in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Florence Nightingale. It is also the best means, authorities explain, of showing why hospitals exist and of making people better acquainted with hospitals, thus building mutual good will, which will result in greater support for the institution.

One Slain, Another Wounded In Gunfire

CLEVELAND, May 11.—One man was killed and another wounded in shooting affairs here early today. Nicholas Paduano, 4, died of a bullet wound received in a beer flat fight, which police blamed on a liquor feud or a card game quarrel. His assailant escaped.

The other victim, who said he was Henry Arthur, 25, was shot in the head and leg by Police Lieutenant Frank Purcell when the officer trapped him in an alleged robbery attempt.

Purcell, responding to a burglar alarm, found Arthur in the top floor of the Mid-Western Bottle Supply Co., building.

Ballantine Given Margin of 289 Over J. Howard Sinclair In Five-Cornered Sheriff Fight

COBB TRAILS IN COMMISSIONER RACE; MARGIN OF VOTES SMALL

Lafferty Noses Out McCarthy for Prosecutor; Clerk Noble and Engineer Kirk Are Winners

Republican primary contests, regarded as among the closest waged in Columbiana county in many years, reached unofficial decisions at 11:30 a. m. today as the last straggling precincts were reported from the central section of the county.

The late vote reports gave Frank Ballantine the Republican nomination in a five-cornered fight for sheriff and George L. Lafferty of Lisbon the victory in the prosecuting attorney race, Leroy Rinehart and Oliver C. Vodrey of East Liverpool were leaders in the commissioner contest.

Following close behind the two East Liverpool commissioner aspirants is Leslie R. Cobbs, Salem councilman, who trailed Vodrey, in unofficial tabulations, by 52 ballots.

Atty H. L. McCarthy of Salem was nosed out in the last-minute ballot rally which added votes to the Lafferty column. Lafferty is holding a lead of 329 over the Salem candidate.

Official tabulation of votes is being conducted in Lisbon today by the county election board.

Ballantine is given an unofficial majority of 289 over J. Howard Sinclair of Hanoverton, with John A. Bryan of East Liverpool running in third place. Thomas Cartwright is fourth with Norman H. Peters of Salem fifth.

Neck-and-neck battles were waged in the three races until returns were reported shortly before noon from West Point, Lisbon and Elkton precincts.

Four Are Renominated

Four county officers were renominated in the day's voting. Two of them, Treasurer John C. Litty of Salem and Recorder Edith Elliott of Lisbon, were named by G. O. P. electors without opposition while two others, Clerk of Courts John A. Noble of Lisbon and Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk also of Lisbon, were renominated by decisive majorities.

Kirk was the winner in a three-cornered contest against R. D. McGill of Wellsville and John C. Gill of Weillsville.

VOTE IN SALEM SETS RECORD FOR PRIMARIES

2,771, of Which 2,449 Are Republicans, Registered In City

All previous Salem primary election records were shattered as a total of 2,771 voters, 2,449 of them Republicans, cast ballots in the city's 13 polling places Tuesday in the selection of state, district and county nominees for the November election.

The record vote brought out 256 more electors than the 1931 municipal primary and an increase of more than 700 over the number casting ballots at the county primaries in 1930. A total of 266 ballots cast by Perry township voters brought the number registered in the Salem district to 3,637, by far the largest primary ballot barrage ever recorded here.

UNION LABEL

IN THE NAME OF TAXATION

Having learned to expect trouble when congressmen, taxation and lobbies are placed together under pressure, the country is watching the senate anxiously as it takes up consideration of the tax bill. Will its attempts to deal sanely with an important national problem turn out as disastrously as the attempts of the house? And what follies and injustices will it commit in the name of taxation?

Like the house, it will face demands to protect industries by boosting tariff rates, in the pretext of raising revenue. There are some senators opposed to making a tariff bill of a tax measure, but most of them are like Senator Fess, who, though objecting to the principle, admits that if industries in other states are to get protection, Ohio industries have a right to it, too.

Curious and astounding are the things proposed for the common weal, in taxation as in everything else. There is, for instance, the matter of an import tax of five cents a pound on crude rubber, calculated to yield $53,000,000 annually. Nothing out of the way appears on the surface of this provision, but small manufacturers using crude rubber are doing their best to get their case before the senate in time to escape what they fear may be destruction of their enterprises.

The powerful companies, they point out, have large stocks of crude rubber in reserve—sufficient, in some cases, to enable them to evade the tax for more than a year. Small companies which buy their crude rubber on the market a month's supply at a time, on the other hand, would be obliged to bear the tax as soon as their supply on hand is exhausted. The crude rubber tax, therefore, falls short in two particulars: it is inequitable and it would be relatively unproductive during the period when it would be needed most.

It is inevitable that emergency legislation should contain many bad provisions. Yet, it is the sum of provisions both good and bad which determines the efficiency of government. The senate faces a critical test of its ability to legislate in the broad public interest during the coming days.

What Others Say

GANG CRACKING

The government's success in putting Al Capone behind the bars for a long term of years is a triumph of law and a serious blow to racketeering. At the same time it would be fatal to suppose that when the gang's clanged on this particular gangster vice and crime were banished from Chicago and other large American cities. The fight against them has only begun.

Conditions breed criminals. Conditions make it possible for criminals to carry on their anti-social activities with greater or less freedom of action. As long as conditions favorable to such business as Capone engaged in exist, there will be racketeers. Capone was not the first "big shot" in the game. Others will spring up to take his place if they are permitted to.

Any idea that Capone's conviction and incarceration has cracked all the gangs in the country would be a dangerous delusion. The chief value of the government's victory over Capone is that it shows the thing can be done, when it is gone about with sufficient intelligence, courage and determination. The racketeers already have learned this lesson from Capone's fate. As long as one pays his income tax he can get by with almost anything. Will the public generally take from it another lesson? The price of ultimate victory in the war on organized vice and crime in our big cities is eternal vigilance and unrelenting aggression against the forces of the underworld.—Detroit Free Press

NEW YORK, May 11—Billy Seaman was once one of the town's younger gallants who could always be found where lights blazed brightest—a vivid figure in Broadway's face and fatigue. Rich, personable, he was by day a sterling business man, but by night a play boy.

An earlier pal of Jimmy Walker, he was almost a constant companion during the days the Mayor was building his political fences. His penthouse, "Sky Farm," in Waverly Place, was the scene of many gatherings of notables from the world of sport, the stage, screen and literature.

One might drop in any evening and find the congenialist in full flower. And then Seaman fell in love with lovely Phyllis Haver of the films, and after a whirlwind courtship they were married. Their devotion became a part of the White Way lore.

An evening recently Seaman was persuaded to come out of his long domestic retirement to attend a stag banquet in the Broadway section. It was an evening of hale frolic and wassail. And Seaman, tiring of it early, excused himself to go to his club to write letters.

He left word for a friend at the banquet to call for him there and drive him home. His friend got the wrong address, pulled up in front of one of the "take joints" and inquired of an outside capper if Seaman was there. He was told he was but had stepped out a moment and would be back.

The friend ordered a round of drinks for several percentage ladies-for-sale, then becoming suspicious of the place and at Seaman's nonappearance asked for his check. He was presented with one for $86 and after a noisy argument settled for twenty dollars.

Emerging, he found Seaman leaving his club a few doors away and told of his experience. Angered, Seaman rushed into the cyp. dive, was surrounded by gorillas but was so fierce in his demand for his friend's $20 that he miraculously got it. Also a newer appreciation of the fireside and slippers.

George Gershwin's father recently drove by a traffic light and was ordered to the curb. When the cop descended like a thundering cloud and asked his name the answer meant nothing. So the elder Gershwin had a sudden inspiration. "Maybe you know George Gershwin?" he inquired. He is a shy little man with an accent and piping voice. "Well, if you're a friend of the Judge I'll let you go this time," said the policeman, and the bewildered parent drove on.

Then there is Police Commissioner McInerney's yarn about the New York born cop who jerked a speeder to the curb and exclaimed: "Where are you from?" Meekly: "Cleveland, sir." To which the cop sneered: "Cleveland? Then what the hell are you doing with an Ohio license plate?"

Also the experience of the late Will Hogg who, with blarney ignorance that often abounds in the metropolis. After a department store purchase, he asked the clerk to express it to Houston, Texas. "Houston, Texas," murmured the ameba of intelligence in a quizzical pose. "Let's see, that's in Cuba isn't it?" And those who knew Will Hogg could give you a sketchy outline of what he said. But this journal is not printed on asbestos.

The sudden blooming of banjo-torched pop corn sands in sundry midtown crevices is a commercial phenomenon surpassing the growth of orange juice hutchers a few years ago and spawning a litter of overnight millionaires. Corn cribs offer a new version of county fair crack-erjack. It came into immediate popularity not only among passers-by, but the laundress trade. Too, speak-easies and gambling houses began to feature bowls of it free. The last "rage" of pop corn was during the Chicago world's fair.

Postscript from an asylum guest at Prairie du Sac, Wis.: "At least I am sane enough to wear a hat in the winter and change to b. v. d.'s in the fall." A lot of folks running around loose are not.

Telegram: "You may not recall me but I fired you off two newspapers, and later refused as the head of a syndicate to market your wares. But we all make mistakes and I just wondered if you remembered."

How could I forget you?

The Stars Say—

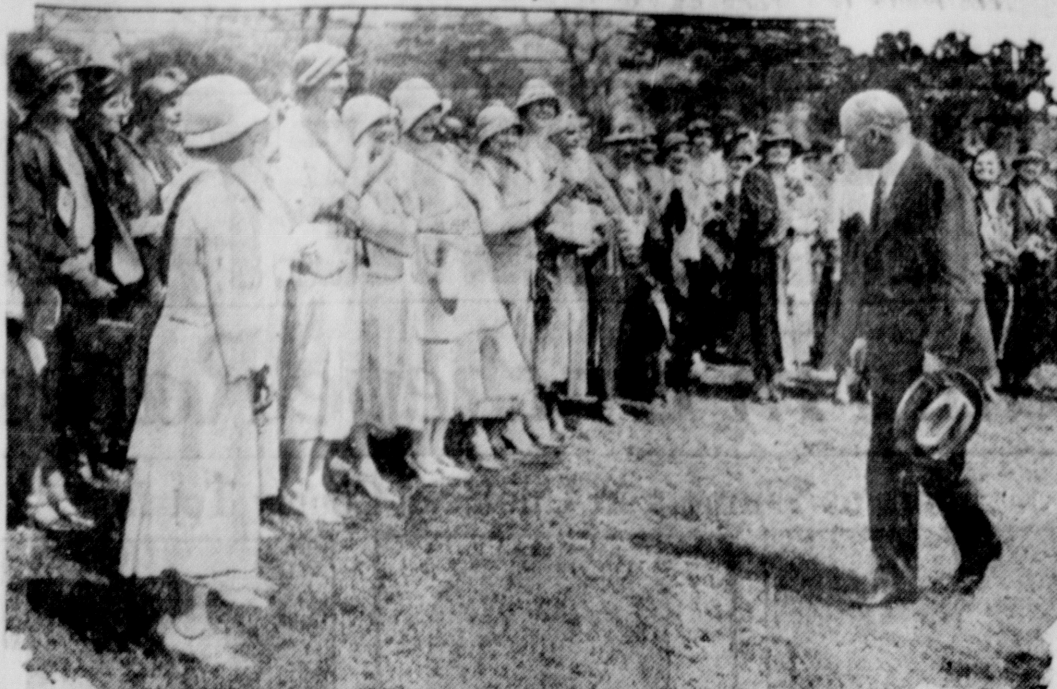

Thursday, May 12

The astral influences for this day point to sudden changes or journeys, ambition, business and projects, fulfilled ambition. Popularity and enhanced prestige are forecast from the dominant places of superior planets. Affairs should be pushed to high goals, despite the advent of impediments, stubborn obstacles and secret enemies or opposition. Honors, favors, the co-operation of those in high places are assured as well as pleasant and profitable personal contacts and relations.

Those whose birthday it is may lack for an eventful year with profitable change, the success of new projects and the friendly co-operation of those in places of power and authority. Pleasant reactions on private affairs are also presaged but be persistent in overcoming obstacles and alert to powerful enemies or opposition. A child born on this day may be proud, ambitious and capable and should have a successful, honorable and pleasant life in spite of much enmity and obstacles.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

Scarlet Fever Very Contagious

There has been an alarming increase in the number of cases of scarlet fever reported from all over the country within the past few months. Fortunately, most of the cases were of a mild form.

Scarlet fever is a highly contagious disease. It is often neglected and in this way is quickly spread from one child to another. Quarantine is necessary for all cases. Children who recover from scarlet fever should not be permitted to return to school without presentation of a physician's certificate.

The disease comes on suddenly and the first symptoms noted are vomiting, sore throat, headache and fever. The rash of scarlet fever appears within 24 hours and is first seen on the neck and upper part of the chest. It is bright red in color and gradually spreads over the entire body. The rash lasts from three to ten days and then fades. After this the skin peels in scales or large pieces, producing what is called desquamation.

Mild cases of scarlet fever require little treatment besides rest in bed and isolation; but please bear in mind that mild cases are quite as contagious as severe cases. Though the treatment of scarlet fever in the mild form is simple, the disease should never be neglected or its importance underestimated. Often the heart and kidneys become involved, even in mild forms of scarlet fever, simply because the disease is not treated and the diet and amount of exercise are not limited.

Scarlet fever is dangerous because of the frequent complications that occur in this disease. The heart, kidneys, ears and glands may become involved, in the severe forms of this disease. When the fever is high, special medications and careful nursing are off the utmost importance.

Use of the Dick Test

Large quantities of water should be taken. It may be given in the form of lemonade or orangeade. Liquid foods, such as milk, are best tolerated in the beginning of the disease. Later, cereals and broths may be added to the diet. Daily elimination is important and where necessary, enemas should be given. When the fever has subsided and desquamation has taken place, sponge baths containing bicarbonate of soda are beneficial and recommended.

As "Old Granite" Voted

Carrying his 85 years like the soldier that he is, President Paul von Hindenburg of Germany, is shown as he left a polling booth in Berlin after he had cast his vote in the recent election. Although the veteran President was re-elected by a big majority over Adolf Hitler, Nazi leader, Hitler's party gained many more seats in the Diet than he had ever held previously.

Alice in New Wonderland At Eighty

Inspiration of Lewis Carroll's Fantasy Comes to Honor Memory of Childhood Friend Who Wrote Immortal Classic.

The original Alice of Lewis Carroll's immortal fantasy entered a new Wonderland when the liner Berengaria docked at New York on her last trip from England. But this time there was no White Rabbit, Mad Hatter or March Hare. Instead, Alice, who is Mrs. Alice Hargreaves, looked upon a Wonderland of towering skyscrapers and slender spires that seem to point to still another land that lies above the clouds. Mrs. Hargreaves, now 80 years old, was the little girl for whom Lewis Carroll created the land of beautiful nonsense seventy years ago. Carroll told the story of Wonderland to Alice and her two sisters. But though the sisters were content to hear the story from the lips of its creator, little Alice Liddell, fearful lest she forget a detail, insisted upon the dreamy professor of mathematics writing the story in a book for her. This Carroll did and that same manuscript, penned to amuse a child was later sold for $75,000. Mrs. Hargreaves is here to attend the 100th anniversary celebrations of the birth of Lewis Carroll at Columbia University. She is accompanied by her only surviving son, Captain Caryl Hargreaves, of the Scots Guards, and her sister Miss Rhoda Liddell.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

To Soak or Not to Soak

"Shouldn't you put all the dishes to soak in plenty of water if they can't be washed immediately after the meal?" inquired the young housekeeper, who tried the scheme with imperfect results.

Certainly not all the dishes. Soaking won't hurt china or enameled saucepans; but silverware should not be left in water for a long period, nor aluminum, nor cast iron. Metal saucepans are best cleaned while warm. If not warm enough, add a little water and heat up.

It will add extra work to soak metalware, for rust stains may develop and necessitate extra scrubbing. If there's not time to do all the dishes, it will save labor to do the saucepans and silverware and leave the china and glassware.

Soaking in cold water is good for egg-stained plates, but hot water will cook egg more firmly to the plate. Utensils used for cooking fish, onions or other foods of strong odor, should be soaked five minutes in warm water to which a spoonful of vinegar has been added. They should be washed in soapy water, however, before the soaking with vinegar.

When using an aluminum pan for cleansing silver, permit the silver to soak only a few seconds. Place the tarnished silverware in a clean aluminum saucepan, add boiling water enough to cover and 1 teaspoon of salt and 1 teaspoon of baking soda for each quart of water. Cover the saucepan and let stand a few seconds, then remove silver, rinse well in clean, warm water and wipe with a soft towel.

To remove discolorations from aluminum, add cold water and a spoonful of vinegar, let boil half an hour, then rinse well and dry at once.

Moving Day Miracles

"Need any help? I just dropped in to lend a hand," explained the first visitor in Adele's new flat. And then he gasped. For, far from the disorder that is regarded natural on moving day, the brand new apartment was beautifully and completely arranged, everything in place from curtains to cup hooks. Impossible! Three people couldn't have done that much in one day.

"Certainly, I moved today," explained Adele, "but I did most of the work in this new flat before I moved. I've been here almost every day this last month. Checking up the painting for right colors. Ordering a handy man around and doing some jobs myself. As soon as I signed the lease for the place I did the planning. And a little bit of work every day. Had all the shelves I needed put up, cup hooks screwed in where needed, curtain rods nailed up. Kitchen linoleum put down, kitchen and wardrobe shelves attractively lined.

"Also I had my curtains laundered, rugs cleaned, and all the other odd jobs attended to a couple of weeks before moving day. I'd planned, too, where each piece of furniture was to go, and although it was a wrench, I did manage to chuck out several bulky pieces that be held in readiness to return should a "genuine emergency" demand it, he emphasized, but he added that the government in the future would probably be slow to decide such an emergency existed and would not consider minor infractions of the truce by the Chinese reason for dispatching troops.

"The decision is due to the Japanese government's desire to conform to world opinion," he said, "and to prove that Japan had no territorial or other ulterior motives in sending the troops to Shanghai."

The withdrawal will mean a return to conditions as they existed before the outbreak at Shanghai, last January, which cost thousands of lives, both Chinese and Japanese, and the destruction of millions of dollars worth of property.

Since the withdrawal of the fourteenth division from Shanghai to be sent to Manchuria, announced by the war department yesterday, only about 15,000 troops remain there.

The spokesman said, Japan expects the Chinese to observe the armistice agreement signed last week and she also expects that the United States, Great Britain, France, and Italy, whose representatives also signed the pact, will act promptly and effectively if the Chinese commit any act of transgression.

Since the decision was due to a desire to conform to world opinion and to end the world-wide odium which has fallen upon us," he said, "Japan will hold the other nations accountable if Shanghai is again endangered."

The withdrawal, he said, was dictated by purely political considerations, and the question of finances or the increasingly disturbing Manchurian situation did not enter into it.

The decision closes a chapter of history which began four months ago, just after the Japanese army had ended its campaign in Manchuria.

Dirigible Akron Over San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif., May 11.—The dirigible Akron passed over San Diego at 8:37 a. m. P. S. T. (11:37 a. m. in Salem) — on its way to Camp Kearney — near here, this morning.

The naval communications office reported bad weather conditions over Camp Kearney with low ceiling and poor visibility. Officers said it may be some time before the Akron will be able to make its mooring.

Jump to Riches

After sixty-five years on the fringe of poverty, Ora M. Severance, of Peabody, Mass., woke up one fine morning recently to find that he had suddenly been graduated into the class of the idle rich. Severance was named heir to $100,000 in the will of Charlotte M. Richardson, 81, who died recently at her Peabody home. She had been a benefactress to Severance in life, and continued the work in death.

Helene Costello Is Divorced From Lowell Sherman

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, CALIF., May 11.—Because Lowell Sherman, director-actor, allegedly told her she was his "mental inferior," Helene Costello, actress, was in possession of a divorce from him today.

After listening to Miss Costello's testimony yesterday, Superior Judge Thomas Ambrose granted the divorce on a cross-complaint. The actress had only one supporting witness, Mrs. J. Walter Ruben.

"He always acted in a very suspicious manner," said the actress of Sherman, "and this caused me to suffer an inferiority complex. It made me very nervous."

"Mrs. Ruben said of Sherman that 'he was very opinionated, and it gave Mrs. Costello an inferiority complex.'"

Miss Costello charged cruelty, claiming he treated her inhumanely, nagged at her housekeeping and told her she was unfit as a companion for one of his intellectual attainments.

Sherman, in his complaint, had charged cruelty, also, claiming Miss Costello had hit him with a whip, struck his mother, drank to excess and kept a library of "filthy and erotic" literature.

A property settlement, the court was informed, was effected before the divorce proceedings were begun.

also apparently have lost both candidates, one on each party ticket, which they had selected to win against large fields. They were a little more successful, however, in the district congressional contests, winning a few nominations there.

Former state director of agriculture, Charles V. Truax, of Bucyrus, and Stephen M. Young, Cleveland, both advocates of prohibition repeal, won the Democratic congressional-at-large nominations by safe majorities. They were running about three to one ahead of Charles E. Lukens, Marion, the only dry candidate in a field of eleven.

Bender Is Winner

On the Republican congress-at-large, George H. Bender, Cleveland, a former state senator and a former prohibition advocate, won one of the nominations as a Liberal by a safe plurality. He was leading Benjamin F. Reading, Toledo, retired minister, by more than 32,000. Thomas J. Herbert, a repeal advocate, was leading Reading by almost 7,500 in more than three-fourths of the state. L. T. Palmer, another Liberal, also was leading Reading by 3,500.

Governor George White, an advocate of a referendum on prohibition, was overwhelmingly renominated, defeating his only opponent, Galen Starr Ross, a lecturer, by better than six to one. Senator Robert J. Bulkley, Democrat, had no opposition for renomination.

Marriage Will Not Delay Long Flight

LONDON, May 11.—J. A. Mollison, noted British flier, who announced his engagement to Amy Johnson, foremost British aviatrix yesterday, will not allow his impending marriage to interfere with a proposed flight to and from New York at the end of June.

Mollison plans to take off from Dublin, fly to New York, remain there to snatch a few hours sleep and then take off again for Croydon, near London. He hopes to complete the round trip in 2½ days. Up to now he has refused his intended wife's request to accompany him. There is a possibility he may attempt the flight alone, or that Capt. J. Patrick Saul, who accompanied Wing Commander Kingsford-Smith on his trans-Atlantic flight, may go along.

His friends said there was only a bare possibility that he might finally consent to Miss Johnson's request.

PALMER'S LEAD REMAINS SLIM

Battles With Nickels In Lieutenant-Governor Race

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, O., May 11.—State Senator Walter G. Nickels, New Philadelphia, and Lee B. Palmer, Pataskala, president of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation, went into a nip and tuck race for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, as more complete returns came in. Palmer was grimly hanging on to a lead by a margin of 1,800 votes. George E. Turner, Cleveland, was bringing up the rear only 10,000 votes behind Nickels.

Braden Is Winner
George C. Braden, Warren, chairman of the state tax commission and a former lieutenant governor, was nominated for Republican secretary of state by a wide margin. He had a lead of 40,000 over Arthur A. Nixon, Dayton, former state chairman, in a three-cornered race for the Democratic nomination for secretary of state. At the two-thirds mark he was leading R. U. Hashings, Lancaster, his nearest rival by more than 40,000.

Daniel E. Butler, Toledo, appeared to be the probable winner of the Democratic contest for state auditor, in a six-cornered race at the two-thirds mark he was leading E. C. Galleher, Akron, by more than 6,000.

Ferguson Looms Winner
Joseph T. Ferguson, Lancaster, probably has won the nomination for Democratic treasurer over John E. Harper, Columbus, Harper was training by almost 22,000.

Herbert S. Duffy, Columbus, likewise has been nominated Democratic attorney general over Francis Poulson, Cleveland, by a safe majority. He was leading Poulson by about 46,000 at the two-thirds mark.

The Democratic nomination for chief justice of the supreme court went into a dead heat between municipal Judge Frank S. Day of Cleveland and Appellate Judge Karl V. Weygant, also of Cleveland on 5,252 precincts out of the state's total of 8,701. Weygant took an earlier lead away from day and was now leading by about 1,100. Common Pleas Judge T. D. Price of New Lexington was a poor third in the race.

William P. Henderson, Kenton, and Charles E. Zimmerman, Springfield, won the two Democratic supreme court judgeship nominations handily. Robert N. Wilkin, Dover, the other entrant, was trailing.

AKRON CONQUERS WESTERN STORM

Giant Dirigible Starts On Trip to San Diego; Weather Improves

LOS ANGELES, May 11.—Triumphant over discordant elements in the west Texas, the giant navy dirigible Akron sailed smoothly over New Mexico and Arizona and was headed today for San Diego, Calif.

En route to Sunnyvale, Calif., for navy maneuvers the Akron was welcomed by much improved cruising weather as it sailed into Arizona, and it made up some lost time. More favorable weather awaited it in southern California.

Over Douglas, Ariz., shortly before midnight, Lieut. Commander Charles E. Rosenthal radioed the Arlington naval radio station he expected to moor the 785 foot craft temporarily at Camp Kearney, San Diego, about 8 a. m., P. S. T. today. Rosenthal said flying conditions were good.

Following the Southern Pacific railroad much of the time, the Akron was reported regularly over New Mexico and Arizona last night.

OHIO GOVERNOR IN SPOTLIGHT

Steps Into Presidential Lists With Backing of State

(By Associated Press)
Governor George White of Ohio stepped into the Democratic presidential lists today with the all but solid backing of his state, while Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York gathered in West Virginia's delegate vote.

Results Are Expected
On the Republican side, President Hoover was assured the solid convention strength of both states, completing the expected results in yesterday's primaries without upset. The President also picked up Tennessee and Wyoming's delegates in state conventions.

The Ohio delegate contests were overshadowed by apparently decisive victories right down the line for anti-prohibition candidates. Leading these was young David S. Ingalls, grasping the Republican gubernatorial nomination on a repeal plank, and State Attorney General Gilbert Bettman, successful apparently in defeating Louis J. Taber, master of the national grange, for the party's senatorial selection. Bettman urged repeal while Taber was staunchly dry.

Governor White, favoring a prohibition referendum, won his Democratic renomination handily, while the wet Senator Bulkley was unopposed within his party.

Smith Delegates Sunk
All Democratic delegates opposing White were defeated except one supporter of Newton D. Baker, of Akron, who had a good chance at being seated. Six delegates in the Cleveland district pledged to the support of Alfred E. Smith, were sunk to one.

President Hoover's few opponents were being swamped at about the same rate.

West Virginia's preference vote went to Roosevelt in a 10 to 1 victory over Governor Murray of Oklahoma, and all 16 delegates apparently belonged to the New York-er, also.

12 American Women To Bow At Court

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, May 11.—Twelve American women will stand for one brief moment before Britain's king and queen tonight and hear the softly spoken words of presentation to royalty.

They will then curtsy in solemn "thank you" for the regal favor and depart, tired, and perhaps wondering a bit, to their hotels.

The moment of glory will be the climax of weeks of excitement and preparation—hours spent at dressmakers, the trip from America, long lessons in court etiquette, and hours spent in a queue of limousines in the mall awaiting their turn to enter the palace.

The American women who will meet King George and Queen Mary will be just individuals in a crowd of hundreds of presentees of all nations tonight and tomorrow night.

Probably no other court in the world, however, matches those held at Buckingham palace by the British monarchs. The social and political leaders of Britain are brought together in a panoply of substantial brilliance peculiarly English.

In Warm Race

L. R. Cobb, of Salem, Republican candidate for commissioner, finished a close third, in Tuesday's primary, to Rery Rinehart and Oliver C. Vodrey of East Liverpool, approximately 50 votes representing the difference, in the unofficial count, between second and third places.

Star Athletes Clash In County Competition Here On Saturday

THE DAY IN SPORTS

SALEM HIGH WINS TITLE
IN TRACK 20 YEARS AGO
BUMBAUGH STARS AGAIN

Salem High school staged a big surprise as its track and field athletes won the North-Columbiana county championship in the annual meet at East Palestine.

THIS NEWSY bit of news is taken from The News of just 20 years ago and it appears that even then, just as this year and for the past several track and field seasons, the battle for supremacy in these competitions in the county was centered between Salem and East Palestine.

On this day, two decades ago, the North-County meet involved but three schools, Salem, Palestine and Leetonia, the Quakers edging out the Browns and White by a 58-55 score while Leetonia was third with 13 points.

The summary shows that Atkinson of East Palestine was the big star, winning four firsts, two seconds and three thirds for 29 points while Carroll Bumbaugh was runner-up in point-making honors with 21 points. Following Bumbaugh was Trotter with 18 1-4.

Saturday these same two rivals, along with five other county schools, clash in the annual county competition at Reilly athletic stadium.

A GLIMPSE into the past shows the marked improvement in records in all events for county competition. We wonder just how these marks would compare had those lads of two decades ago the same advantages in coaching, equipment and other things, as the athletes of today.

Here is a complete summary of the meet as recorded in files of The News:

220-yd. low hurdles — Atkinson (EP) won, time 29.4 sec.; Trotter (S) second, Gray (S) third.

Standing broad jump — Arnold (EP) won distance 9 ft. 10 1/2 in.; Atkinson (EP) second, Bumbaugh (S) third.

50 yd. dash — Worman (L) won, time 5 min. 2 sec.; Mackintosh (EP) second, Cavanaugh (S) third.

Discus — throw — Bumbaugh (S) won, distance 98 ft. 7 1/2 in.; Atkinson (EP) third.

50 yd. dash — Won by Bumbaugh (S) time 6 sec.; Trotter (S) second; Atkinson (EP) third.

Running broad jump — Atkinson (EP) won, distance 18 ft. 5 in.; Simpson (EP) second, Bumbaugh (S) third.

Half mile run — Lindsay (L) won, time 2 min. 22.8 sec.; Johnson (S) second; Trotter (S) third.

High jump — Atkinson (EP) won, height 5 ft. 1 in.; Vaughn (S) second, Simpson (EP) third.

100-yd. dash — Bumbaugh (S) won, time 11 sec.; Trotter (S) second, Atkinson (EP) third.

Shot put — Atkinson (EP) won, distance 37 ft.; Arnold (EP) second, Bumbaugh (S) third.

220-yd. dash — Trotter (C) won, time 24.4 sec.; Bumbaugh (S) second, Atkinson (EP) third.

Hammer throw — Anderson (EP) won, distance 105 ft. 10 in.; Gregory (EP) second, Vaughn (S) tied for first, height 9 ft. 2 in.

1 mile relay — Won by Salem (Trotter, Gray, Vaughn, Johnson), time 3 min. 56 sec.

Star Athletes Clash
A great array of star performers in all events will collide in the classical competition, Salem High's Quaker thinclads, victorious in three consecutive meets, being conceded a fine chance to cop the crown now held by East Palestine.

A number of stellar races are anticipated, especially in long-distance track events, the mile run, where a new record may be expected, involving Harold Horstman, Salem star, and Bob Fugate, fleet-limbed East Liverpool star.

Preliminaries will get under way at 10 with finals slated to start at 2 p. m.

Uncle Sam's Daughters Out for British Golf Honors

These six American women golf stars will attempt to show John Bull's daughters a thing or two about the game in the international matches at Wentworth, England, May 24 and 25. All are also entered in the British Women's championship tournament at Saunton starting May 30. Helen Hicks, present American title holder, is rated a good chance to win dual honors, while Mrs. Glenna Vane, five-time American champion, can always be depended upon to render a good account of herself. Miss Virginia Van Wie, the Chicago star, Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City, Miss Maureen Orcutt of New York, and the Pacific Coast's contribution, Mrs. Leona P. Cheney of Los Angeles, have all been playing excellent golf throughout the winter and should prove worthy representatives of these United States. The team is captained by Miss Marion Hollins, who will also serve as alternate with Mrs. Harley Higbie of Detroit. They'll give John Bull's ladies a good fight.

Star Runners Clash Saturday

Outstanding among the track events expected in the Columbiana county meet here Saturday should be mile and half mile races involving Harold Horstman of Salem and Robert Fugate of East Liverpool.

Fugate last week broke his own record in the mile Geneva college relays at Beaver Falls, Pa., racing the event in 4 min. 30.8 sec., slightly slower than the mark set up while Horstman was showing his heels to a great field of runners in the North-eastern Ohio Big Ten meet in Salem Friday.

Other star distance-runners will also be in the two races but the mile should develop into a two-cornered battle between Horstman and Fugate, Salem will have Keith Harris as its main hope in the 880 while Irwin Beck will be teamed up with Horstman in the mile.

Veteran Stars to Represent Germany in Olympic Games

(By United Press)
BERLIN, May 11.—Germany's team for Los Angeles will consist chiefly of veteran Olympionics. Athletes such as Emil Hirschfeld, "Doc" Peltzer, Hellmuth Koernig, Erich Radenmacher, Gehring and Leucht, who represented the Fatherland at Amsterdam four years ago, will again be the mainstay for the tenth Olympic games.

That does not mean that Germany is going to select its team on the basis of past performances. Care will be taken to send only athletes who in several tryouts, have proved that they actually will be in July, that is, five days before the German Olympic team is scheduled to leave.

Emil Hirschfeld, long the world's record holder for the shot put, doubtless will be on the German team. The giant sergeant-major of the Reichswehr is in excellent form. He now is regularly over-shooting the 15.50 meter mark.

"Doc" Peltzer, too, is expected to make the team. Reviewing his performances of this season, there ought to be no doubt that he will succeed.

At present he is in much better form than he was in the Amsterdam Olympics when he made the team on account of past performances. Peltzer's best recent performance was a time of 2:30.8 for the 1,000 meters.

The third veteran Olympionics is Hellmuth Koernig. He is still Germany's fastest, and what is more, most reliable sprinter. He has repeatedly reached 10.4 seconds for the century.

Besides these three veterans there are only two German athletes whose names can be mentioned as probable members of the Olympic track and field team. They are Jonath, Germany's second best sprinter, and Hans Sievert, Germany's hope for the Decathlon at Los Angeles. Jonath is just 23. He is German champion for 1931 for both the 100 and 200 meter stretch. He suddenly came to the fore shortly before the Amsterdam Olympic games and in the tryouts actually made the team, but was left behind on account of his youth.

Jonath is expected to make the team. Reviewing his performances of this season, there ought to be no doubt that he will succeed.

TOLAN TO RACE FOR HONORS IN OLYMPIC MEET

Holder of 100-Yd. Dash
Record To Compete
With Simpson

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the eighth of a series of 12 articles on the 12 outstanding American athletes for the Olympic games in Los Angeles, this summer.

TODAY: Eddie Tolan.

By STUART CAMERON
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 11.—Eddie Tolan, former University of Michigan Negro runner, officially credited with the world's record for the 100-yard dash, may wear the starred and striped badge of the United States in the 100-meter event of the Olympic games this summer.

Tolan, although he may have reached his prime, will make a big bet further international honors this season. If he does win an Olympic berth it will be because his start has improved. Although he has been timed at .09.5 for the 100-yard dash, he is a notoriously slow starter. In countless races he has been last at the starting line and first to reach the tape. This flaw has been remedied somewhat.

Born in Denver

Tolan was born in Denver and came east to Detroit with his parents when a boy. He attended Cass Technical High at Detroit and gained a reputation as one of the outstanding interscholastic sprinters of the country.

He entered the University of Michigan, and when during his sophomore year he became eligible for competition, he started working against George Simpson of Ohio State, the man who has been his bitterest rival.

Tolan and Simpson always finished one-two in outdoor competition, with Tolan sometimes breaking the tape, and sometimes Simpson. A good guess is that Simpson won most of the duels.

Reaches Stride Slowly

Tolan always has come into his stride slowly, looking like an average sprinter indoors and being at his best during the late outdoor season. He has often run the 60 yards in .06.2, tying the world mark. He is officially credited with the 100-yard dash record of .09.1 although the International committee has seemed unwarrantedly slow in calling a meeting in which it could recognize the .09.4 record established by Frank Wykoff. Tolan has run the 220 repeatedly in 20.9.

Tolan has often been termed a stocky athlete. He does appear to be stocky, but his appearance is deceiving. He's only 5 ft. 5 in. tall and weighs around 130 pounds. He is well muscled, and that's what makes him appear husky.

What The Stars Did Yesterday

(By Associated Press)
TONY LAZZERI, Yankees—Collected four hits.

JIMMY DYKES, Athletics—His home run and double drove in four runs against White Sox.

VIC SORRELL, Tigers, blanked Red Sox, 11-0, with two hits.

LON WARNEKE, Cubs—Stopped Giants, with five hits to win, 9-2.

RAY BENGE, Phillies—Blanked Reds, 4-0, allowing only five hits.

St. Paul Destined To Finish Low In Association Race

CHICAGO, May 11.—Albert Leiffield's St. Paul Apostles are still trying to equal their 1932 winning streak marks in the American association—a mark of two victories in a row.

The Saints appear on paper to be a reasonably good ball club, and they haven't taken many bad beatings this year, but they can't seem to get going long enough to even come close to getting out of the cellar. They lost six games in a row before they finally defeated Indianapolis on April 19.

They defeated Columbus the next day to set their season's winning streak, but waited until April 28 to score another victory, that one against Toledo. Another long drought followed, but they defeated Louisville Monday, only to start another losing streak yesterday.

The Colonels didn't do any better than necessary, squeezing out a 2 to 1 decision with the aid of an unearned run.

Indianapolis won its second straight over Minneapolis, resorting to good, old-fashioned slugging for a 12 to 6 victory.

Toledo opened its series against Milwaukee with a 7 to 6 victory in 10 innings.

Cold weather forced postponements of the Columbus Kansas City game, raising the number of doubleheaders coming up, to 25.

Bruins Take Big Lead in Victory Over Giant Club

Tearing along three games in front of their closest pursuers today, their great pitching staff mowing down opposing batsmen with relentless efficiency and their hitters thumping in unison, the Chicago Cubs threaten to make a runaway of the National league race.

Win Fourth Straight
When young Lon Warneke set the New York Giants down with five hits yesterday, 9 to 2, the leaders scored their fourth straight victory over eastern clubs and their thirteenth win in 16 engagements.

Warneke's sensational hurling has rounded out one of the most formidable staffs in either league. In winning his first five games, the 23-year-old product of the Mount Ida, Ark., has given up only nine runs, all told.

His teammates whaled three Giant hurlers for 11 safeties. They were helped along by three Giant errors, running the total for McGraw's crew to 42 miscues in 20 games.

Phillies Beat Reds
The day's only other National league bout saw the Phillies break Cincinnati's five-game winning streak 4 to 0, behind Ray Benge's effective pitching. Five Red hits were widely spaced. Rain checked the scheduled activities at Pittsburgh and St. Louis.

Vic Sorrell turned in the day's American league masterpiece when he allowed the Boston Red Sox only two hits in pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 11 to 0 victory. Hal Rhyne's two singles knocked Sorrell out of a no-hit game.

Lefty Grove was almost as effective as the Athletics blanked the Chicago White Sox, 9 to 0. The great southpaw allowed six hits, but bore down in the pinches. Jimmy Dykes knocked in four of the winners' runs, with a homerun and a double.

The wildness of Walter Stewart and "Bump" Hadley, who distributed eleven walks, helped the Yankees.

THEATER Attractions

"SO BIG" with the versatile Barbara Stanwyck as its star plays today for the last times at the State theater. Taken from the Pulitzer Prize novel of Edna Ferber, it is well done and has an excellent cast. George Brent, Irish lad who has been starred recently, plays opposite Miss Stanwyck. Dickie Moore, Hardie Albright, Bette Davis and Mae Madison carry important roles and are splendid.

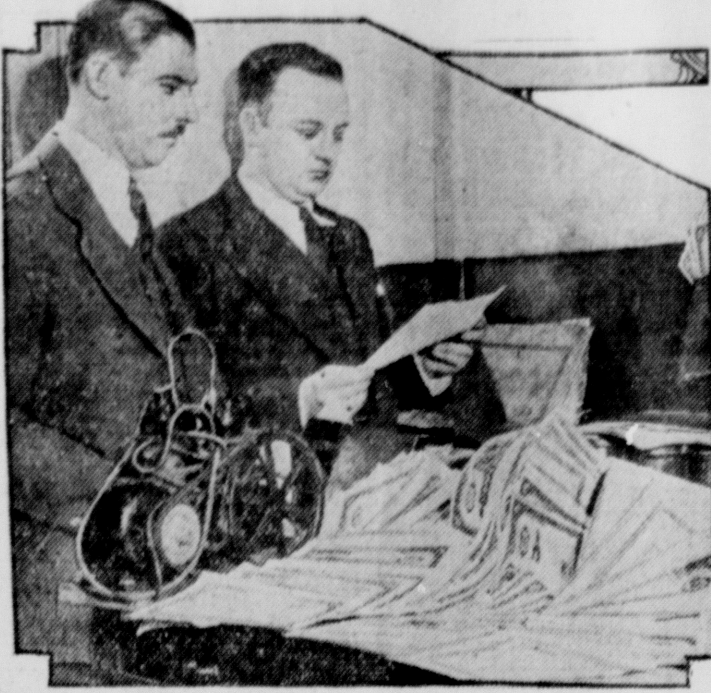

This story of American womanhood which covers a number of years gives the moviegoer a plain sight into the ways of the bustle and leg-o'-mutton sleeve days of the gay nineties and then leads his down to the modern day.

COMING ATTRACTIONS show "The Woman in Room 13" for Thursday only at the State. Elissa Landi is the star.

Based on the famous play of the same name, the picture relates the experiences of a young wife who divorces a philandering husband to search for happiness with a new mate. The venture is satisfactory in every way until the jealous, revengeful ex-husband plots to prove her unfaithful.

Henry King directed the picture which is said to give Miss Landi her best screen role. The popular star

One of the biggest swindles ever attempted on the American people was nipped before it could get going when New York police raided a loft in the metropolis and captured a huge quantity of counterfeit stock certificates, purporting to be valuable Dupont stock. is supported by an able cast which, Myrna Loy and Gilbert Rolin includes Ralph Bellamy, Neil Hamilton.
